Stellenbosch University
22 - 25 September 2016*

The Geography Student Society of Stellenbosch University invites you on behalf of the Society of South African Geographers (SSAG) to join us to celebrate an amazing milestone, a century of geography teaching and research at tertiary level in South Africa. The annual geography student conference is the largest gathering of tertiary level geography students in the country, and stands as an opportunity for students in our diverse field to showcase their research, to attend and learn from a broad variety of presentation sessions, and to engage, debate and network with other geography students from across Southern Africa.

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS
